 (First Flight)(Chapter - 5) (The Necklace)
 (Class - 10)

The cab's number. Therefore, Lotoi dressed himself up again and went over the track where they had walked. He did not find anything. They went to the police and to the cab office. He even put an advertisement in the newspapers, offering a reward. He then asked Matilda to write a letter to Miss Forester, explaining that she had broken the clasp of the necklace and would get it repaired. This gave them time to find the necklace. However, they eventually decided to replace the necklace with a new one.

Question 2:
 How do they replace the necklace?
Answer 2:
 To return the lost necklace both of them had to work hard. They borrowed money and even used the money left by Mr. Lotoi's father. The necklace was bought for 36000 francs and given back to Mrs. Forester.

Think about it
Question 1:
 The course of the Lotois' life changed due to the necklace. Comment.
Answer 1:
 The course of the Lotois' life changed due to the necklace. After replacing the lost necklace with a new one, they had to repay all the money that they had borrowed from all the lenders to buy the new necklace. He had borrowed eighteen thousand francs. They had sent away the maid and changed their lodgings and rented a little room in an attic. Matilda learnt the sewing work of a kitchen. She washed the dishes, soiled linen, their clothes and dishcloths. She took down the refuse to the street each morning and brought up the water, stopping at each landing to catch her breath. Dressed like women of people she went to the grocer's, the butcher's, and the fruiter's, with her basket on her arm, shopping, haggling to save her money. Lotoi worked in the evenings, putting the books of some merchants in order. At night, he did copying at five sous a page. This lasted for ten years, and at the end of the said period, they were able to repay their lenders.

Question 2:
 What was the cause of Matilda's ruin? How could she have avoided it?
Answer 2:
 The cause of Matilda's ruin was her dissatisfaction with whatever she had in life. She was a dreamy woman and believed that she deserved all the delicacies and luxuries in life. She was always unhappy. She disliked her circumstances. She could have avoided the ruin by being content with what she had. Her desire to wear the jewel which she could never afford in her life ruined everything.

Question 3:
 What would have happened to Matilda if she had confessed to her friend that she had lost her necklace?

 (Class - 10)

Oral Comprehension Check – III

Question:

1. Why didn't Maddie ask Peggie to stop teasing Wanda? What was she afraid of?
2. Who did Maddie think would win the drawing contest? Why?
3. Who won the drawing contest? What had the winner drawn?

Answer:

1. Maddie was herself did not belong to a rich background. She couldn't ask Peggie to stop teasing Wanda because Peggie was her best friend and she had faith in Peggie that she would never do anything wrong. Peggie never insulted anyone and never did anything that would hurt one's feeling. Maddie was afraid of being laughed at for her poor dresses.
2. Maddie thought that Peggy would win the drawing contest. Because Peggy drew better than anyone else. She could copy a picture in a magazine, or some film star's face so well that one could tell who it was.
3. It was Wanda, who won the drawing competition. When the students entered the classroom it was full of sketches of dresses. There were hundreds of dresses on the walls of the room. All the students wanted to know who made them. Wanda was appreciated by the judges and applauded by her fellow classmates.

Thinking about the Text

Question:

1. How is Wanda seen as different by the other girls? How do they treat her?
2. How does Wanda feel about the dresses game? Why does she say that she has a hundred dresses?
3. Why does Maddie stand by and not do anything? How is she different from Peggy? (Was Peggy's friendship important to Maddie? Why? Which lines in the text tell you this?)
4. What does Miss Mason think of Wanda's drawings? What do the children think of them? How do you know?

Answer:

1. Wanda was poor and lonely girl. She was seen differently by the other girls. Girls used to tease her by commenting on her dress. Wanda used to sit in the corner to avoid being laughed at because her feet were covered in dry mud.
2. Wanda did not show any feelings regarding the dresses game. She did not have hundred dresses in her closet. She could not afford new dresses as her family was poor. This could be one of the reasons why her family left the place and moved to the city. Wanda was a girl who was very poor. She lived in Boggins Heights which was far away. Her feet were dirty as she walked down to school. She wanted attention of her friends. So, she felt very happy whenever she told her friend that she had hundred dresses without realising that they were making fun of her.
3. Maddie always stood by and never did anything as she was afraid that if she did, she would be the next target of the children. She herself was poor and therefore, felt that if she spoke against the others, they would target her next. Unlike her, Peggy was a rich girl. This was also the reason why Maddie could think from Wanda's point of view, but Peggy could not. Maddie was Peggy's best friend. It seemed as if she was in awe of Peggy. She admired her quite a lot as she said that Peggy was the most liked girl in the room and that she drew better than anyone else. She did not have the courage to go against her. Some of the lines from the text which show that Peggy's friendship was important to Maddie are as follows.

NCERT Solutions Class 10 English - Chapter 4
 From the Diary of Anne Frank

Question 3:
 Do you think Mr. Keesing was a strict teacher?
Answer:
 No, Mr. Keesing was not a rigidly strict teacher but he expected his class to maintain silence and discipline while he is imparting his lecture to the class. As a matter of fact, a teacher always thinks about the welfare of his students. Any teacher would be annoyed if the children keep on talking during the class. Mr. Keesing was annoyed with Anne because she was very talkative. So to punish her, he would give her to extra homework and often told her to write essays on her talkative nature. Besides, it should be noted that had he been strict, then he would not have laughed at Anne's funny arguments.

Question 4:
 What made Mr. Keesing allow Anne to talk in class?
Answer:
 Anne's last essay entitled – "Quack, Quack, Quack, Said Mistress Chatterbox" in the form of a poem showed Mr. Keesing the lighter side of Anne. He was impressed the way she presented her arguments in a rhythmic manner. It helped in bridging the gap between Mr. Keesing and Anne and thereafter she was never assigned extra homework by him.

Thinking about the Text (Page 54-55)

Question 1:
 Was Anne right when she said that the world would not be interested in the musings of a thirteen-year-old girl?
Answer:
 It is a human tendency that kids are often not considered seriously by elders. Being a thirteen-year-old girl, Anne thought that most people don't want to give importance to a child's perspective towards the world because they think children are too immature to talk about worldly matters. However, Anne Frank's diary was popular among the masses and was translated in different languages and she became one of the most renowned and discussed of the Holocaust victims.

Question 2:
 There are some examples of diary or journal entries in the 'Before You Read' section. Compare these with what Anne writes in her diary. What language was the diary originally written in? In what way is Anne's diary different?
Answer:
 Anne's diary was originally written in Dutch. It was different from other entries in several aspects and from most of the examples given before the text. She had named her diary as 'Kitty'. She wrote in an informal tone which revealed the carefree nature of a teenager. She confided her feelings and secrets on it as she considered her diary to be her best friend. She wrote a lot of personal events and memories in her diary which made it different from other diaries.
